1. The writer in Ephesians 4:1 encourages the community to walk worthy of the calling to which they have been called. Have you identified what you have been called to do by God yet. If so, would you mind sharing? If not, have you thought about it?
2. What are some steps you've taken to be reformed since engaging The Reformed Me Series?
3. When we operate as the reformed me, there must be some evidence. Have you seen any evidence of reformation in your life? If so, would you mind sharing?
4. The writer of Ephesians wrote the text that the faith community would be unified in mindset and action. What are some ways we can unify to help the vision of TNC a.k.a. Impact Nation come alive?
5. Which part or parts of The Reformed Me series resonated with you the most and how so?
6. What is your value and what do you use to determine your value?
7. What are some areas in your life that you desire to be more disciplined in? Have you taken any steps towards those goals yet, if so, would you mind sharing?
8. Is there anything you would like for us to be in prayer about for you in terms of your journey to reformation?
